

Schedule of Events

(Same for both days unless otherwise noted)

Purchase advance tour tickets and find more details at: www.snowgoosefestival.ca

7:30 am - 5:00 pm

Tour Registration & information Centre – Tofield Arena
Concession open

8 am – 3:30 pm
Ticket Required

Tour Departures from Tofield Arena
Tour cost: Adults: $25, Youth (12 & under): $10, Family (2a/2c): $60
Visit website to purchase advance tickets. Tickets may be limited on site.

Bring your camera, bird ID book, and binoculars. As spring weather can be unpredictable, waterproof footwear and layered clothing are recommended.

9:30 am – 5 pm
FREE Admission

Trade Show and Market Hours
Several tradeshow and market vendors, nature interpretation, kid's activities, educational exhibits with live birds and more!

9:30 am – 5 pm
FREE Admission

FREE Kids Activities - Located in Trade Show area
Hosted by Nature Alberta and Nature Kids
Visit the Nature Alberta booth where families can try out a variety of different activities.
- Kids can make their own craft to take home
- Test their wildlife knowledge with interactive quizzes

12 Noon & 2:00 pm
FREE Admission

Speaker Series: Tofield Arena Meeting Room

Saturday, April 25 at 12 Noon
Marsh Birds of the Beaverhill Natural Area
Willow Zilliox, Field Biologist, Beaverhill Bird Observatory

Saturday, April 25 at 2:00 pm
Sidney Stansell and the Birds of Alberta 100 Years Ago
John Acorn, Lifelong naturalist, a former television host, a book author, and a faculty member at the University of Alberta in Edmonton

Sunday, April 26 at 12 Noon
Exploring the role for zoos in local species conservation in support of global biodiversity goals
Catherine Shier, Professional Biologist with the City of Edmonton

Sunday, April 26 at 2:00 PM
In Search of Sandpipers: The Fleeting Shores of Beaverhill Lake
Jon Van Arragon, Biologist, Beaverhill Bird Observatory

6:30 pm
Saturday Only
Ticket Required

Banquet & Silent Auction at Tofield Community Hall
Doors open at 6:00 pm, supper at 6:30 pm.
Tickets: $50/person (purchase in advance by April 17)

Guest Speaker: Dr. Glynnis Hood
Topic - Seasons of the beaver: A journey through time

Silent Auction at banquet with proceeds supporting to the Snow Goose Festival.